

Scrapping Retreat

The Scrapberry Jam is here. You have waited for this and now it is here. What would it feel like to escape for a weekend, with no responsibilities or worries. To be inspired by a change of scenery and tap into the energy of others? An entire weekend of uninterrupted cropping time. Spend your days preserving memories while you create new ones in the Vermont country side.

The Inn's Great Room

Join us at the Inn at Cranberry Farm, a beautiful all seasons post and beam bed and breakfast located in Chester, Vermont. The Inn is situated on 60 acres of rolling meadows and forested farmland that includes a serene pond, spectacular views of the Green Mountains and it is just a short walk from the Inn to the Williams River. The Inn at Cranberry Farm is the perfect location to reenergize yourself and explore the central Vermont region.

The spacious guest rooms and suites, along with the enormous common space, were designed for scrapping comfort. The great room boasts a 30 foot vaulted ceiling with palladium windows drawing you to the outstanding views. You can crop in solitude or visit with fellow guests exchanging ideas and techniques. Need a break? Head down to the garden level where there is a recreation room with a pool table, games, guest refrigerator and a TV/VCR with a large collection of movies.

The Inn at Cranberry Farm offers warm hospitality in a relaxed and informal atmosphere. We invite you to join us and experience it first hand.
